CONSENTED-TO MOTION TO EXCEED PAGE LIMIT

Pursuant to Local Rule 7(a)(4), Plaintiffs, by their attorneys, respectfully request leave to file their Opposition to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss in excess of the page limitation imposed by the Local Rule.

Local Rule 7(a)(4) requires that a memorandum in opposition to a dispositive motion must not exceed 25 pages without prior leave from the Court. Defendants filed a 30 page motion to dismiss that raised many issues, including subject matter jurisdiction, personal jurisdiction, venue, whether an arbitration clause is enforceable, tribal immunity, the proper scope of Ex Parte Young, and whether every claim in the complaint states a claim. Plaintiffs seek leave to file a memorandum that is approximately 40 pages in length in order to adequately address the issues upon which the Motion to Dismiss is based. The issues raised are complex and the Court is likely to benefit from a complete discussion of the issues.

Defendants have consented to the relief sought by this motion.
